

25X1A
[REDACTED]

China

16 March 1950

Communist Aviation School, Haichou

1

25X1C

OF INT
[REDACTED]

25X1X

1. The Chinese Communist Aviation School, Tumen, Manchuria, is known as the 81 Unit. It comprises 3 battalions and an aviation training school, and is commanded by CH'ANG Ch'ien-k'un (), who studied aeronautics in the USSR. Part of the 81 Unit was transferred to Haichou after the Haichou campaign.
2. As of 4 June 1949 some forty students were undergoing training in the 81 Branch School, Haichou. These students were selected from outstanding members of the 5 Cultural Workers' Unit and the Shantung Military and Political University. The instructors of the 81 Unit consisted of 5 Japanese and 5 Koreans. The chief Korean instructor is Kim Sang-il (). The Japanese instructors have not yet arrived.

25X1A

• See [REDACTED]

25X1A

[REDACTED] Comment. The information, realized to be old, is forwarded for its possible value as background material.

CONFIDENTIAL